MAY ZHANG

SCHOOL: C.B. Jennings School

GRADE: 5

CLUBS/ ACTIVITIES: School Enrichment Model Initiative Program (SEMI), Reading, Piano, & Flute

An exceptional student who does her best, is willing to help others, and brings enthusiasm and encouragement to every class, May achieves "advanced goal" levels on CT Mastery Testing, scored in the 5% of students with a 'Gifted IQ', and qualified for a Johns Hopkins University (JHU) Scholarship.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS: In the SEMI Program for 2 years, May is an exemplary student, both academically and socially. With a pleasant and cooperative personality, she assumes the role of team player, leading as well as following, and gets along with everyone. She participates in many SEMI events, including Earth Day at CT College and volunteering for the SEMI/Reforest the Tropics Fundraiser. Well-rounded, May plays the flute and piano, and is currently preparing for a major role in the Jennings production of Aladdin. 'It is an absolute pleasure working with May' - sums up the Jennings School sentiment.

PRINCIPAL'S QUOTE: "It has been my pleasure to support and observe the academic and social growth of May since before she entered kindergarten. Now as a 5th grader, May epitomizes all that is right with our educational process when the school and home actively work in collaboration towards the same goal - having our students reach their fullest potential."
