Students will begin by spending time in the classroom reviewing the vocabulary related to food, dining out and polite conversation. Students will role play various restaurant interactions and investigate restaurant critiques both in English and French. The high point of the unit will be a curriculum enhancing trip to the Union League Café in New Haven for a full French luncheon.

Students will see that French has its uses outside the purely academic world of the classroom. This trip will not only motivate students in French I and II, but also provide kudos for the French III students, recognizing their two and a half years of hard work.

Participating students will sign an agreement that only French is to be spoken on the field trip from the time they leave NLHS until they return.
